Having spent several days exploring Cairo, I've compiled this comprehensive travel guide to help you plan your own unforgettable trip to this captivating city. From must-see attractions to hidden gems, from local food recommendations to insider tips, this guide covers everything you need to know to make the most of your time in Cairo.

Itinerary

To help you make the most of your time in Cairo, I've created a suggested itinerary that can be customized to fit your interests and time frame.

Day 1

- Arrive in Cairo and check into your hotel.
- Visit the Pyramids of Giza, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World.
- Take a felucca ride on the Nile River.
- Explore the Khan el-Khalili bazaar.
- Dine at a traditional Egyptian restaurant.

Day 2

- Visit the Egyptian Museum, home to the world's largest collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts.
- Explore the Old City of Cairo, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- Visit the Al-Azhar Mosque, one of the oldest and most important mosques in the world.
- Take a cooking class and learn to prepare traditional Egyptian dishes.
- Enjoy dinner at a rooftop restaurant with panoramic views of the city.

Day 3

- Visit the Coptic Christian churches of Old Cairo.
- Explore the Museum of Islamic Art.
- Go shopping for souvenirs in the Khan el-Khalili bazaar.
- Take a day trip to Memphis and Saqqara.
- Return to Cairo and enjoy a farewell dinner.

Of course, this is just a suggested itinerary. You can customize it to fit your interests and time frame. If you have more time, you could spend a few days exploring the Western Desert or taking a Nile River cruise.

Attractions

Cairo is home to a wealth of attractions, from ancient wonders to modern landmarks. Here are a few of the must-sees:

- Pyramids of Giza: One of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the Pyramids of Giza are a must-see for any visitor to Cairo. These massive structures are a testament to the ingenuity and engineering prowess of the ancient Egyptians.
- Egyptian Museum: Home to the world's largest collection of ancient Egyptian artifacts, the Egyptian Museum is a must-see for history buffs. Here you can see everything from mummies to gold jewelry to everyday objects.
- Old City of Cairo: A UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Old City of Cairo is a labyrinth of narrow streets and alleys, home to mosques, churches, and other historic buildings. It's a great place to get lost and explore.
- Al-Azhar Mosque: One of the oldest and most important mosques in the world, Al-Azhar Mosque is a must-see for anyone interested in Islamic architecture. The mosque is also home to one of the oldest universities in the world.
- Khan el-Khalili bazaar: One of the largest and most famous souks in the world, Khan el-Khalili is a great place to find souvenirs and traditional Egyptian goods. Be prepared to bargain!

Food

Cairo is a foodie's paradise, with a wide variety of traditional Egyptian dishes to choose from. Here are a few of my favorites:

- Koshary: A national dish of Egypt, koshary is a delicious mix of rice, lentils, pasta, chickpeas, and a tangy tomato sauce.
- Ful medames: A popular breakfast dish, ful medames is made from fava beans that are cooked with garlic, lemon juice, and olive oil.
- Molokhia: A traditional Egyptian soup, molokhia is made from jute leaves that are cooked in a broth with garlic, coriander, and other spices.
- Mahshi: A variety of stuffed vegetables, mahshi is typically made with grape leaves, zucchini, or eggplant that are filled with rice, meat, and spices.
- Umm Ali: A popular dessert, umm ali is a bread pudding made with layers of phyllo pastry, nuts, and a sweet milk sauce.

Shopping

Cairo is a great place to find souvenirs and traditional Egyptian goods.

Here are a few of the best places to shop:

- Khan el-Khalili bazaar: One of the largest and most famous souks in the world, Khan el-Khalili is a great place to find souvenirs, traditional Egyptian clothing, and spices.
- Mohamed Ali Street: A popular shopping street in the heart of Cairo, Mohamed Ali Street is home to a variety of shops selling everything from clothes to electronics to souvenirs.

- City Stars Mall: One of the largest shopping malls in Cairo,
