With the arrival of autumn, the Dordogne Valley transforms into a canvas of warm, earthy tones. The leaves of the grapevines in the nearby vineyards turn a deep crimson, promising a bountiful harvest. Farmers gather in the fields to reap the fruits of their labor, the scent of freshly cut corn and hay filling the air.

At Les Libellules, autumn is a time to celebrate the harvest. Guests gather around a crackling fire in the evenings, sharing stories and laughter while enjoying local wines and cheeses.
